Dear Principal and English Panel,

The 9th Create My Smart Storybook Contest

Would you like your students to showcase their creativity and writing skills, and tell their own stories in front of a live audience?

We are writing to cordially invite your school to participate in the 9th Create My Smart Storybook Contest (Hong Kong District) organized by Smart Education Charitable Foundation. Over 150 primary schools in Hong Kong and Macao joined this contest, with over 100,000 students participated last year, and we received very positive feedback from our contestants. We certainly look forward to your active participation this year.

We are overwhelmed by the number of participants; in addition to the contest for students in Hong Kong, we are organizing a separate contest just for the students in Macao. We plan to organize a Grand Finale in the summer of 2016 to invite all the district winners to visit Hong Kong to showcase their creativity and storytelling talents!
